

"Then allow me to open it." The man gave way. As JESUS opened the door, when the Devil saw JESUS immediately he said "Oh SORY SIR. I didn't know that this was your house" Immediately the Devil left and never visited that man's house again. This was how the man became saved from the Devil's attack.

How about you? Is your life saved from the constant interference of the Devil? Have you given your full heart to JESUS? Or have you given him only half like the man in our story? Invitation for accepting Christ. Lord Jesus, I am a sinner, I thank you for dying on my behalf by taking away my sins and judgment on the Cross. I now open my heart to you to come in and be my Lord and savior in Jesus Name (AMEN)

works I will add one making two. "JESUS accepted the offer. That night the Devil again came and troubled the man as before.....

2

"Then I need this Jesus to come into my house. How can I find him? Why is he? I want to go and find him." He is everywhere," his friend replied "All you need to do is to come to church, accept him and pray." This man called JESUS into his house and offered him one room in that house. But later that night the Devil came and disorganized that house more than before, without touching JESUS' room. In the morning the man went to JESUS and said, "Sir, you said that if I accepted you into my house you will protect me from the Devil but you didn't, why? Look now what Devil did to me and my house?" But Jesus said to the man "You gave me only one room, and I am in charge of the only one you've given me. Did you see the Devil tampering with the one you gave me to protect?" "No." The man replied. "If this is the way it works I will add one making two. "JESUS accepted the offer. That night the Devil again came and troubled the man as before.....

2

While there was a man who had a big house with many rooms in the morning, JESUS came and met him. Looking into JESUS' eyes the man asked, "What are you doing? Where have you been? I don't understand. You are here to help me not to relax, everything in that house disordered and disorganized. The man was troubled and began to look for a way out. As he shared some of these happenings with some of his friends, one of them said to him, "Don't you know the man JESUS?" "Who is this man?" The man asked. "He is the only one who can chase away the Devil that night when the Devil arrived," as he knocked at the door, that man went to open the door, but JESUS replied, "Isn't this my house now? Didn't you give it all to me?" "Yes" the man replied.....

3

"Then allow me to open it." The man gave way. As JESUS opened the door, when the Devil saw JESUS immediately he said "Oh SORY SIR. I didn't know that this was your house" Immediately the Devil left and never visited that man's house again. This was how the man became saved from the Devil's attack.

How about you? Is your life saved from the constant interference of the Devil? Have you given your full heart to JESUS? Or have you given him only half like the man in our story? Invitation for accepting Christ. Lord Jesus, I am a sinner, I thank you for dying on my behalf by taking away my sins and judgment on the Cross. I now open my heart to you to come in and be my Lord and savior in Jesus Name (AMEN)